The under 6s played a tough match against an opposition that scored several impressive goals despite the best efforts of the determined Lidcombe defence. Amelia Waters led from the back, running down and blocking countless attacks but the Congs couldn't maintain any forward momentum. Matthew Ma came back bravely, playing well after a big collision. Musa Mohammed and Thomas Triantos gave their all, running hard until the full time whistle.

It was also good to see Rayhan Sarwari and Mihran Saedi back on the field after a few weeks of absence.

Thanks to Anay, Emran, Jarrod and Leo from the U8s who subbed in for us today as we kept OLQP to only 1 goal against. Ethan Santiago and Thanmai Rahul Kagathi as usual with their improved attack and Ahmed being sick as a dog did an awesome job in attack with Moiz Shabbir backing it up with steely defence and attack. I commend all players as they played outstandingly and our opponents Coaches had nothing but praise on our improvement. Well done Lidcombe U10s you did everyone proud.
